Our Program for 17 June 2009

Julia Dzikiewicz will present a program on encaustics, a medium that allows her “to use multiple layers of paint to express multiple layers of meaning”. Julia studied at the University of Virginia, the Art League, the Corcoran College of Art and Design, and R&F Paints in N.Y., and has exhibited her oil, acrylic, mixed media and encaustic paintings in numerous galleries across the United States.

Upcoming Events

Events coming up before we go on summer break are.....

The opportunity to display your art at Bull Run Library in Manassas 8 June and Art Display on June 25th at PNC Bank in Manassas

May 2009 Scholarship Awards Presentation

The Prince William Art Society presented its second Jewell Pratt Burns Scholarship Award at a ceremony May 20th at the Canterbury Woods Community Center in Lake Ridge. The recipients were Elizabeth Seager, Osbourn Park HS graduate, who will pursue a degree in Art Therapy, and Caleb Fletcher, Brentsville District HS graduate, who will attend The School of Art & Design at Alfred University, NY. Pictured are left to right, presenter of the awards Jewell Pratt Burns, Caleb Fletcher, Elizabeth Seager and PWAS President Alice LaBier.

Bull-Run Library
8 June 2009

Once again Bull Run Library has asked us to participate in a community effort to display art, in the lobby of the Library, on the walls.

As on past occasions the art will remain hung at the library for about one month. There will be room for 16-20 pieces depending on the size of the artwork.

Artists wanting to participate must complete the entry form.

I will ask that PWAS art tags be used to identify the art and artist, as per our shows.

Artwork needs to be dropped off at the Bull Run Library on 8 June 2009 at 10:30AM

Those participating will receive an e-mail from me to remind them of the date and time to retrieve their art. Those items not picked-up will remain at the Library and it will be the responsibility of the artist to make other arrangements with the Library to retrieve their art.

I will be working with Sandy Killsgard to complete the display.

Any further questions can be directed to: emeraldkunzite@hotmail.com

Bull Run Library
8 June 2009
Entry Form

I understand that I will need to drop off and pick up my art at Bull Run Library in Manassas. I will give a daytime and evening phone number as well as my e-mail address so that I can be contacted.

I will not hold Prince William art Society, any of its members, or the Bull Run Library, responsible for any damage or loss of artwork. Prince William Art Society retains the right to choose those pieces of art that will be hung at this function.

PWAS Art Exhibit at PNC Bank
25 June 2009

Dear Artist,

Prince William Art Society has been asked to do a one evening exhibit at a PNC Bank.

Two-dimensional artwork of acceptable subject will be hung at this function. The Artwork needs to be dropped off at the PNC Bank promptly at 4pm. Artists will need to pick up their art by 8:30pm, at the PNC Bank. This is a fairly well attended affair by local businesses. It is catered and we need to get in and set up prior to the caterers coming in. Artists are not required to stay.

I would also ask you to consider having business cards available for distribution. Please be sure to have your piece securely protected to avoid damage. Attach PWAS art card, as we normally do for PWAS sponsored events, to your artwork. There is limited space, so respond ASAP, if you are interested.

Deadline for entry is postmark no later than 8 June 2009. No artwork will be displayed without a signed entry form. Once again, artists will be responsible for drop-off and pick-up of their art.

Any questions can be directed to: emeraldkunzite@hotmail.com

Thank you for your interest.

PAUL CEZANNE

Cézanne

Kettle-Glass-Plate with Fruit

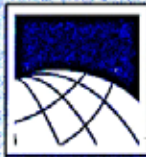

Mountains in Provence

The Riaux Valley near L'Estaque

Paul Cézanne was a French painter, often called the father of modern art, who strove to develop an ideal synthesis of naturalistic representation, personal expression, and abstract pictorial order.

Cézanne was born in the southern French town of Aix-en-Provence, January 19, 1839, the son of a wealthy banker. His boyhood companion was émile Zola, who later gained fame as a novelist and man of letters. As did Zola, Cézanne developed artistic interests at an early age, much to the dismay of his father. In 1862, after a number of bitter family disputes, the aspiring artist was given a small allowance and sent to study art in Paris, where Zola had already gone. From the start he was drawn to the more radical elements of the Parisian art world. He especially admired the romantic painter Eugène Delacroix and, among the younger masters, Gustave Courbet and the notorious Edouard Manet, who exhibited realist paintings that were shocking in both style and subject matter to most of their contemporaries.

Mrs. Alice Labier
C/O Prince William Art Society
PO Box 2013
Woodbridge, VA 22195

Dear Alice,

On behalf of the Office of the Arts and visual art students in Prince William County Public Schools, I want to express my appreciation to you and the members of the Prince William Art Society for your generous support of our student artists.

The scholarships for our Summer Art Enrichment program have enabled two elementary school children to participate in the program who would not have been able to do so without your generous gift. Both of the students and their teachers are extremely grateful for your assistance.

Last night Debbie Barnard and I had the pleasure of attending your ceremony to present two high school students each with a Jewell Pratte Burn Art Scholarship. Elizabeth and Caleb, as well as their parents, are very grateful for the $1,000.00 scholarships. They are very talented young artists, and your generous checks will enable both to pursue art careers through attending art programs at the university level.

My thanks again to you for keeping in touch with us throughout the year on behalf of the Art Society to offer financial support for our programs and students.

Sincerely,

Joyce S. Zsembery
